Rules of the World and European Championships

Information

The ITHF Executive Committee prepared Rules of the World and European Championships. If these Rules are approved, the organizers of the World and European Championship will receive one document that regulates the procedure for holding the World and European Championships.

If the Rules of the World and European Championships are adopted, they will come into force on January 1, 2024.

In addition, the following changes will be made to the ITHF Tournament Rules:

1. paragraph 2.3.1 will be deleted
2. paragraph 2.5 will be worded as follows:

"2.5 International championships

The procedure for holding the World and European Championships is regulated by the Rules of the World and European Championships."
